

Twigs Newsletter Autumn 1

This term the theme is 'This is me'

Communication, Language and Literacy

Our sensory story this half term is 'Super Duper You' by Sophie Henn.

We will celebrate the ways in which we are unique individuals. We will explore the things that we have in common with each other and share learning experiences and stories together each day.

We will work on sound discrimination and listen to environmental sounds as part of our phonics learning.

Early Thinking skills.

We will use sensory provision to explore filling and emptying, scooping and pouring.

We will access cause and effect resources to support our early maths development through continuous provision.

We will be exploring blocks, creating and destroying towers, sequencing and early counting skills.

Knowledge and Understanding of the World

This half term we will explore the theme of 'This is me' by using mirrors, through exploring the home corner and role play. We will work with our partner class to help us understand where we are and who shares our environment and we will explore the different ways that we can do the things that we enjoy.

We will consider how we grow and change as we get older as part of our PSED.

Expressive Art and Design

In art this half term we will be exploring art materials including paint, glue, foam, collage and print. We will explore creating images for our new classroom and use themes from our sensory story to make displays.

Physical & Emotional Development

This term we will be working on our skills in rebound, using core strength and following in instructions. We will be swimming to build our strength and confidence in the water and exercising our muscles in soft play and sensory theatre.

Please send you child with a swimming kit including a costume and a swim pad on a Thursday.

Other Information: This term we will be working on communicating 'yes' 'no' 'more' and 'stop'

If you have any comments or question please do not hesitate to contact us via Tapestry, by phone or email on w.rickerby@ebor.academy

Team Twigs!